School Mission and Goals

All students can learn given the time and resources needed. The goal is to have all students meet or exceed grade level expectations. Instruction must be systematic and explicit. We strive in cooperation with parents, to build a learning community focused on learning, and promoting, supporting and celebrating the academic achievement of our students

On Campus Incidents 3

Classroom management is essential element of instruction to provide an effective lesson. Teachers are now using the Positive Behavioral Intervention Strategies to maximize the use of instructional time to meet the needs of the students. Due to the positive modeling, discipline incidents are greatly reduced when students are engaged in the learning.
